Final weeks of Museum summer programs underway

Just a few dates are left for children to participate in the Sioux City Public Museum's summer programs.

The "Celebrating Diversity" class on Thursday, July 16 will feature Chinese culture. The class for ages 4 and up will be held from 1:30 to 2:30 p.m.

"On the Go…" on Wednesday, July 22 features a look at the history of transportation in Sioux City. The class for ages 6 and up will be held from 10 to 11:30 a.m.

The final summer session of "A Kids' Clues Museum Mystery" for children ages 3-5 will be held on Wednesday, August 5 from 10 to 11 a.m.

The cost of each class is $2 for Museum members and $3 for nonmembers.

Class sizes are limited; pre-registration is required by calling 279-6174. Group classes are available upon request by e-mailing museumeducation@sioux-city.org.

The Sioux City Public Museum's summer programming is being made possible in part with funding from the Gilchrist Foundation.

For a limited time, the Sioux City Museum & Historical Association is offering $5 off new memberships when joining as part of a summer program registration. The special $25 family membership provides a discount to class fees as well as discounts to museums across the country.

For a complete listing of summer programming, visit www.siouxcitymuseum.org or pick up the Summer Fun and Action Guide at any City of Sioux City location. The Sioux City Public Museum is housed in the historic John Peirce Mansion at 2901 Jackson Street.
