

NOW IS THE TIME!

Support the Sioux City Public Museum by becoming a member of the Sioux City Museum and Historical Association!

The Sioux City Public Museum has been collecting, preserving and interpreting regional history for more than 100 years. Founded to assist in expanding the educational activities of the Museum, today the Sioux City Museum and Historical Association provides the financial support necessary to offer a wide-range of programs and exhibits to the community and welcome thousands of visitors each year.

Your membership supports not only the Sioux City Public Museum downtown, but also the Sergeant Floyd River Museum & Welcome Center and Peirce Mansion. For more information, call 712-279-6174 or visit our website at www.siouxcitymuseum.org.

Please join us by completing and sending in the form below. Along with the benefits of membership listed, you will become a partner in preserving our history for future generations...
