Lee-Chavis named education coordinator

Steve Hansen, director of the Sioux City Public Museum, announces the appointment of Treylla Lee-Chavis as education coordinator.

A Sioux City native, Lee-Chavis graduated with a B.S. in Education from Wayne State College, where she is currently working on her M.S.E. Prior to coming to the Museum, she was a regional sales representative for 9 years. Lee-Chavis serves on various city and state boards and is a local business owner. She also has developed youth programs for various non-profit organizations.

As education coordinator, Lee-Chavis will provide programs for youth organizations as well as tours for schools, child care centers, and home-schooled children.
