Local hot dog businesses featured in debut of film

The world premiere of a new film from the award-winning team at G.R. Lindblade and Company about the hot dog business in Sioux City will be shown on Tuesday, May 5 at 6:30 p.m. at the Sioux City Public Museum. The film, “An American Classic; A Sioux City Staple” is a look at the three enduring hot dog restaurants in Sioux City.

A panel of representatives from Coney Island, George’s Hot Dogs and Milwaukee Weiner House will be present to help tell their stories and answer questions. The film will be shown at the beginning of the program and again at approximately 7:15 p.m. as seating is limited.

“An American Classic; A Sioux City Staple” is being shown as part of Historic Preservation Week in Sioux City. Information about other Historic Preservation Week activities is available at www.siouxcityhp.org.

The Sioux City Public Museum is housed in the historic John Peirce Mansion at 2901 Jackson Street. For more information, call the Sioux City Public Museum at 712-279-6174. Admission is free.
