Ice Cream Band Jam to be held on Museum plaza

The Sioux City Public Museum and the All-America Concert Band are teaming up for the annual Ice Cream Band Jam on Wednesday, September 7. A free ice cream social will take place before and during the 6:30 p.m. concert on the plaza in front of the Sioux City Public Museum. The public is asked to bring lawn chairs for seating.

The event is the first concert of the season for the band, and will be the first time they are together since last April's concert. As in the past, the band's director, Chuck Dibley, will try to "Stump the Band" with music they have not seen before the concert.

A car show will feature cars from Abu Bekr's Vintage Wheels and the Sioux City Antique Car Club. The cars will be displayed on Fourth St., which will be closed between Jackson St. and Nebraska St. The museum will be open to the public that evening until 8 p.m.
