No out-of-town plans for spring break? The Sioux City Public Museum is hosting an evening of movie fun, snacks, and discussion at an after-hours event just for kids ages 7 and up. Movies at the Museum: Spring Break Program will be held Thursday, April 9 at 6:00 p.m. The movie night features Kit Kittredge, the Depression-era film based on the popular American Girl series.

The cost is $3 for members; $4 for non-members for snacks and a craft. Space is limited. Pre-registration is required by calling 712-279-6174.

Participants are encouraged to bring blankets or sleeping bags to watch the movie. The MPAA Rating for the film is G for General Audiences.

The Sioux City Public Museum developed the youth film series to explore how popular movies use history as part of their storyline.

The Sioux City Public Museum is housed in the historic John Peirce Mansion at 2901 Jackson Street. For more information, visit www.siouxcitymuseum.org.
