Registration for Museum summer programs underway

Children's programs with topics ranging from Laura Ingalls Wilder to rockets are available at the Sioux City Public Museum this summer, June 10 through August 12. Registrations for classes are now being accepted by calling 279-6174 or e-mailing museumeducation@sioux-city.org. Class sizes are limited; pre-registration and pre-payment are required.

Programs for children ages 8 and older include Rockets! and classes about Laura Ingalls Wilder. Let's Fly a Kite is a class for ages 6 and up. Kids' Clues classes are free for children ages 3-5.

For a complete listing of summer programming, visit www.siouxcitymuseum.org or pick up the City's Summer Fun and Action Guide at the Sioux City Public Museum or City Hall. The Sioux City Public Museum is housed in the historic John Peirce Mansion at 2901 Jackson Street.
