Program traces local Latino population's history

Explore the history of the local Latino population at the Tuesday Twilight Talk, The Evolution of the Siouland Latino Community on Tuesday, October 20 at 6:30 p.m. at the Sioux City Public Museum.

Presenter Norma DeLaO has interviewed families who arrived in the Siouland area from the early 1900s through the present. She will also discuss her personal journey as an immigrant who was born in Mexico and raised in the United States. DeLaO is the coordinator of the New Iowan Center of Sioux City, which is a department within Iowa Workforce Development.

Housed in the historic John Peirce Mansion at 2901 Jackson Street, the Sioux City Public Museum offers monthly Tuesday Twilight Talk programs featuring topics of regional historic interest. For more information, call the Sioux City Public Museum at 712-279-6174 or visit www.siouxcitymuseum.org. Admission is free.
